

Alex Pickering Premiere Offline and Online Editor

Profile

Alex is a wonderfully creative and attentive Editor. He is sympathetic to his clients' needs and injects a great deal of style into the work he does. Alex has a knack of getting the best out of Premiere, and his background of working on everything from music videos, documentaries, corporate and commercials, means he can turn his hand to any project. He has worked as an offline and online editor and his design and grading skills are superb with a great eye for detail. He can work under pressure and deliver a polished edit within a tight deadline. With 19 years of experience, Alex will bring a breadth of knowledge to any job he undertakes.
