

Andreas Torner

Avid Offline & Online / Premiere Editor

Profile

Andreas is a naturally quick-witted and intuitive editor. He has a clear understanding of clients' needs and expectations, confidently liaising with them and giving invaluable advice on both creative and technical matters.

As well as being technically outstanding, he excels at narrative construction and storytelling and has a particularly strong sense of musicality. Andreas is equally at home cutting commercials or documentaries; he has a great eye and real creative flair – a bonus to any project and a pleasure to work with!

Longform Credit List

"Secrets Declassified" 1 x 60min. Episode 10 'Strange Weapons'. David Duchovny (The X-Files) embarks on an exciting exploration of some of history's most mysterious and covert events, diving deep into declassified documents, hidden sites, and long-held secrets. Archive and extensive drama recon-based series.

Exec Producer: Tom Latter

Nutopia for The History Channel

"Dispatches: The War on Britain's Motorists" 1 x 30min. Current affairs documentary looking at how the road and traffic conditions, including potholes and the electric vehicle transition are affecting the UK's motorists.

Exec Producer: Tom Porter

Brite Spark Films for Channel 4

"World's Most Dangerous Roads" 3 x 60min. Series 4 Ep1 'Albania' and Series 5 Ep 8 'Bulgaria'. Series 6 'Ep name TBC' A selection of the UK's brightest comedians takes on extreme challenges to tackle driving down some of the world's most dangerous roads. Never before have a group of individuals been less equipped to deal with everything these genuinely terrifying roads throw at them!

Exec Producers: Harry Lansdown and Natalie Wilkinson

Renegade Pictures for UKTV / Dave

*2023 Broadcast Digital Awards nomination for Best Popular Factual Programme****

"David Hockney - A Celebration" and "David Hockney in Normandy" 2 x 60min. David Hockney is often hailed as one of our greatest living British artists. These films cover many eras and aspects of Hockney's work through insightful interviews, archive footage and a trip down memory lane charting his development as an artist. The legendary artist also sits down with Melvyn Bragg for a definitive interview filmed over a period of four hours.

Exec producer: Suzannah Wander

Directors Cut Productions for Sky Arts

*2024 Broadcast Digital Award Nomination: Best Specialist Factual Programme****

"The 90's Top Ten" 1 x 60min. 10-part presenter-led, fun-packed, nostalgia-filled series that revisits the greatest moments from America's decade of sex and scandal through archive footage and interviews. Covering fast food, toys, commercials, gadgets and streetwear of the 90's from the people who lived it.

Exec Producer: Sara Brailsford

Nutopia for Nat Geo and Disney +

“How Do They Really Do It?” 1 x 45min. Dominos Episode. Behind the scenes documentary series looking at how some of our best-known brands have grown to become household names.

Exec Producer: John Quinn

North One for Channel 5

“Eddie Eats Christmas” 1 x 30min. This four-part festive special will see man-mountain Eddie “The Beast” Hall take on a variety of eating challenges involving traditional Christmas foods from international communities across the UK.

Exec Producer: John Quinn

North One for UKTV

“Ricky and Ralf’s Very Northern Road Trip” 1 x 60min. Royle Family stars Ricky Tomlinson and Ralf Little reunite for a road trip in a campervan around the North of England. The stars share memories, entertain each other, and discover just what sets the north apart from the rest of the UK.

North One for UKTV

“Nick Knowles Big House Clear-out” 1 x 60min. Series 2. Factual entertainment home renovation programme in which Nick Knowles and his team help families across the UK declutter their homes and give them a makeover.

Exec Producer: Oliver Wright

Viacom for Channel 5

“Scouting For Toys” 1 x 60min. Ob doc series which follows internationally renowned Vectis Toys Auctioneers in County Durham, where buyers and sellers from all over the world come to trade every toy imaginable, from Star Wars figures to vintage dolls.

Exec Producer: Ben Mitchell

BBC for Yesterday Channel

“Undercover in the Alt Right” 1 x 60min. Patrik Hermansson went deep undercover, as Swedish student Erik Hellberg, at the heart of the alt-right. He infiltrated some of the most notorious far-right networks in the US and the UK, culminating in the violent clashes in Charlottesville. He extracted damning information that runs all of the way to the White House. And he caught it all on hidden camera.

Silverfish Media for SVT (Swedish Television) & Amazon Prime

“Tonight With Target” 3 x 45min. A six-part weekly show hosted by Radio 1Xtra’s DJ Target celebrating Black British music artists. Showcasing the best new acts with live performances, as well as appearances from some of the biggest names in the industry, the series has an immersive and innovative viewing experience with 360 camera coverage.

Exec Producer: Gregor Lauder

Naked Entertainment for BBC Three

“The Entertainers: Tommy Steele” 1 x 90min. Archive biopic documentary. A personal and revealing portrait of Tommy Steele, one of Britain’s greatest entertainers using rare archive material and interviews with those who know him best, including Michael Grade, Bradley Walsh, Marty Wilde, Marti Webb and Bill Kenwright, who give an insight into this most private of stars.

Exec Producer: Julia Harrington

BBC

“Sean Connery: In His Own Words” 1 x 110min. As part of Channel 5’s In My Own Words Series, this episode celebrates the life of Scottish legend Sean Connery and looks back at the actor’s career through interviews and archive.

Exec Producer: Mark Wells

Double Yellow for Channel 5

“A Very Royal Christmas: Sandringham Secrets” 1 x 60min. A look at how the royal family celebrate Christmas Day at the Queen’s country estate in Norfolk, combining archive footage with interviews from royal insiders and former staff. They discuss the garish gifts, classy celebrations and historical traditions, as well as why Monopoly has been banned from royal Christmases for more than a decade.

Exec Producer: Will Smith, Caroline Short

ITN for Channel 4

"The South Bank Show" 15 x 60min. Art programme presented by Melvyn Bragg, taking an in-depth look at the life and work of various artists such as Helen Mirren, Carlos Acosta, Frank Skinner, Nick Hytner, Tamara Rojo, Jude Law & Ivo Van Hove, Danielle De Niese, Angel Blue, Benjamin Zephaniah, Bernardine Evaristo, Mark Rylance, Tracy Ullman and many more.
Director's Cut for ITV and Sky Arts

"Queen: The Band that Rocked the World" 1 x 120min. Celebration of Queen's 30 greatest moments with the help of friends of the band and celebrity fans, featuring various archive clips from their first Top of the Pops to Live Aid concert.
Exec Producer: John Quinn
North One for Channel 5

"Freddie Mercury: A Christmas Story" 1 x 90min. Freddie Mercury had a deep love for Christmas and all it meant. In this documentary, friends and loved ones reflect on the band, alongside many of Queen's best-loved hits and rare archive footage of Mercury with some of his closest confidantes.
North One for Channel 5

"Royals in Wartime" & "Royals on Tour" 2 x 60 min in a series. Looking back at the Royal family during times of war and as they fulfil their duties around the world. With archive footage and interviews with royal insiders.
ITN Productions for Channel 5

"We Love Gameshows" 1 x 90min. While telling the story of the nation's favourite TV quizzes and games – from the mayhem of 'The Generation Game' to the brainier 'The Chase' – this show looks at the enduring appeal of the TV game show and how it constantly reinvents itself.
Crook Productions for Channel 5

"Eddie Eats America" 2 x 30min. The new series follows Eddie "The Beast" Hall, as he tries to conquer the biggest eating and strength challenges that America has to offer. Eddie will take on iconic eating challenges across the United States. To work up his appetite, Eddie also faces America's toughest and most bizarre tests of strength, including an aeroplane pull, wrestling giant fish - and bending iron bars with his bare hands.
North One for UKTV/Dave

"13 Moments that Killed Whitney Houston" 1 x 90min. Archive based documentary exploring the extraordinary life and tragic death of one of the world's best-loved entertainers. Counting down the fateful episodes that changed her life, this programme will explore the heartache behind the triumph, and the lows behind the highs in the life of a music icon. Re-edit.
North One for Channel 5

"South Bank Show Originals" 5 x 30 min. Sky Arts brings some the most famous episodes of The South Bank Show back to television with added archive footage and extra interviews and contributors. An in-depth look at the life and work of an artist, presented by Melvyn Bragg. Featuring episodes on the talents of Nick Cave, Bird & Fortune, Margaret Atwood, Bill Bryson and Sarah Waters.
Directors Cut Productions for Sky Arts

"Our Classical Century- The Bridge on the River Kwai" Documentary about Malcolm Arnold and his score for 'The Bridge on the River Kwai'. Part of the BBC season Our Classical Century.
Lion TV for BBC Four

"The Strictly Story: Fake Tan, Tango's and a 10 from Len" 1 x 90min. This film focuses on the revitalised ratings-winner that has seen more than 200 celebrities take to the floor. Judges, dancers, and celebrity fans reveal their love for this undoubted national treasure.
North One for Channel 5

"Kerry Packer - The Man who Changed Cricket" 1 x 90min. This documentary explores the influence Australian media mogul Kerry Packer had on the game with his controversial World Series Cricket competition.
TBI Media for BT Sport

"Donnie Osmond's Easy Listening Christmas" 1 x 90min. The singer presents a countdown of his 25 favourite classic Christmas songs, from hit singles to show tunes of stage and screen.
North One for Channel 5

"June Brown at 90: A Watford Legend" 1 x 30min. Celebrating a milestone birthday, EastEnders actress June Brown chats about her life and career. Featuring famous Watford faces and one or two surprises.
BBC One

"Outrageous Acts of Science" 6 x 60min. All across the internet, self-appointed scientists are filming their outrageous experiments and misadventures. Each episode counts down twenty clips while a team of real-life scientists breaks down the principles behind the backyard experiments.
October Films for Discovery

"How Not to do DIY" 1 x 60min. A clip show featuring home videos of DIY disasters and interviews with the culprits.
Voltage TV for ITV

"Three Day Nanny" Factual entertainment series. Professional nanny Kathryn Mewes helps restore peace and calm to households in distress using her unique three-day plan for families.
Liberty Bell for Channel 4

"Penelope Keith's Hidden Villages" Series 1&2, 2 x 60min. Penelope Keith takes to the road to explore our changing relationship with that most quintessential of British institutions, the village.
Reef Productions for Channel 4/More 4

"The Fight for Saturday Night" 1 x 90min documentary following Michael Grade who tells the story of Saturday night TV ratings battles.
BBC Four

"The Commonwealth on Film" 1 x 30min in a series of 4. From Trinidad to Australia, Kenya to Barbados, Canada, India and beyond, filmmakers capture the rich diversity of the Commonwealth and the work that people do.
BBC Four

"Spice Girls Story: Viva Forever" 1 x 90min film that investigates the impact that the Spice Girls had on the 1990's. Featuring interviews with all five of the singers and key players in their story.
Burning Bright Productions for ITV

"London Suburbs on Film" 1 x 30min. A look at how suburban London has been captured on film over time. BBC

"Cold Chain" 1 x 60min documentary following Ewan McGregor as he goes on an inspiring and personal adventure across Nepal, Congo and India delivering life-saving vaccines to children in some of the most remote and inaccessible parts of the world.
I Entertainment for BBC Two / UNICEF

"The Toys that Made Christmas" 1 x 90min feature length documentary. TV Personalities remember their favourite toys, mix of archive and social history.
BBC Two

"Seconds from Disaster" Blending advanced CGI, archival footage, forensic science, dramatic eyewitness accounts and expert testimony, Seconds from Disaster deconstructs the chain of events leading to some of the world's most infamous disasters.
Darlow Smithson for National Geographic

"Freemasons on Trial" 1 x 90min documentary about the secret world of Freemasons. The film revisits the murder of 'God's Banker' - Roberto Calvi and goes behind the doors of today's lodges and discovers what it means to be a freemason today. With extensive Drama Reconstructions.
Parthenon Entertainment for National Geographic

"Untold Beauty" 1 x 60min documentary that aims to explore what different people find beautiful.
Dazed Film and TV for BBC Three

"Close Up with Martin Scorsese" 1x 30min documentary. An international philanthropic programme created to offer extraordinary, rising artists a year of one-to-one mentoring from a great master in their field. Young Argentinean filmmaker Celina Murga teamed up with American film director Martin Scorsese for a year of creative collaboration.
The Proudfoot Company for More4

"Close Up with David Hockney" 1 x 30min documentary (as above).
Documentary featuring David Hockney mentoring German artist Mattias Weischer.
The Proudfoot Company for More4

"Naked Science – Super Diamonds" 1 x 60min documentary examining the future of synthetic diamonds and their impact on modern technology. This episode looks at how diamonds are formed, how we can grow them synthetically and how they might be used in anything from jewellery to space exploration.
Pioneer Productions for National Geographic

Shortform – Commercials, Corporate, Sizzles and Promos

Andreas has cut plenty of shortform content. In addition to the below he has cut 100+ videos for the Rolex Arts Initiative and Awards for Enterprise Programme. He has also cut 1000+ videos for Monster Energy over the last 10 years including internal comms videos, social media content and commercials. A series of films for the release of Ocean Beer and series of YouTube shorts for a ski brand called CARV as well as dozens of sizzles for other production companies over the years.

Objective Productions – Reality sizzle reels
Rolex (Proudfoot)
Heineken (Radley Yeldar)
NHS (Studio Film)
Labour Party (Silverfish)
The Mirror (Pepper Films Ltd)
CARV (Motion Metrics)
Pfizer (Pretzel)
Peugot (Pretzel)
Aviva (Studio Film)
Richemont SA (Torner Films)
Royal Ballet Promos
Carphone Warehouse (Redshark)
Shell (Bigger Bang)
Bollinger (Leagas Delaney)
Gates Foundation (Proudfoot)
English National Ballet (Proudfoot)
Sky (Proudfoot)
Sotheby's (Proudfoot)
Bacardi (Proudfoot)

Channel 4 News (Proudfoot)
Dr Martens (Saatchi & Saatchi)
Ocean Beer (Ocean Born Foundation)
Monster Energy
Patek Philippe (Leagas Delaney)
The National Children's Bureau
Greenpeace (Studio Film)
RBS (Pretzel)
London Fashion Week (Pretzel)
Mace World (Radley Yeldar)
Selected (Torner Films)
Dove
MTV (Redshark)
Richemont (Torner Films)
Boodle Hatfield (Leagas Delaney)
The Arts Council (Proudfoot)
Ford (Proudfoot)
Sony (Proudfoot)
Cadbury's (Proudfoot)