

Harry Anstey

Avid / Premiere / Color Editor / AFX (Offline and Online)

Profile

Harry is a very well established, popular and hugely experienced Offline and Online Editor. He has experience across a range of genres and is renowned for his reputation within music programming and promos. He is capable of taking on board anything from directing music composition to prepping for and coordinating high-end post to building graphics in the edit suite with limited budget and resources. He is not only a creative cutter but he knows the kit inside out and also trains others on it. Over his years as an editor he has built up a great rapport with his clients and is a calming influence in an often very stressful and busy environment!
