Joe Wilby Avid

Profile

Joe has been editing for 11 years and has specialised mainly in short form, particularly Ads, Promo's and Sponsorships and especially those with a quirky edge. A few years ago Joe cut his first feature- a black comedy, which went on to achieve international cinema release and won many awards on the festival circuit.

Being a devilishly talented Ukulele player, Joe excels at anything that involves music and has written songs that have ended up on two commercials.

*Winner at the D&AD Awards 2015 Graphite Pencil in the Editing for Film Advertising category***
