

Charlie Webb

Avid / Premiere Editor

Profile

Charlie is an experienced, skillful editor who is always in demand! He has the ability to turn his hand successfully to many genres including observational documentary, factual entertainment, true crime and sports documentaries and has demonstrated great skills in developing styles and formats for new series. He is as comfortable working alone as a predictor or writing commentary for a series, as he is leading a team as a series editor for a major show. In the last few years, Charlie has edited complex stories for big SVOD's, including Netflix and HBO. Clients rate his speed, storytelling skills and the exuberant energy he brings to every single edit!

"Charlie Webb is always in my must hire list for any series. Very creative, sharp editing and great with music; always prepared to think outside the box to tell a good story and find ways of working rushes to make them a compelling watch. Calm under pressure, super-fast on the keys and a pleasure to work with. Snap him up if you can." Tim Dalby, Executive Producer, Raw

"Charlie is the first person I call when a new film or series is commissioned, after 10 years in TV he's definitely the best editor I've ever worked with. Extremely talented, hard-working, passionate and patient, he always gives his all. Charlie is more than an editor, he's a great storyteller and people person, capable of overseeing the most demanding projects with a smile." Alex Wood, Exec Producer, Double Act
