Laura Angelou Avid Offline Editor/ Premiere

Profile

Laura has recently moved over from Copenhagen where she began her career in television and worked her way up the ranks to become lead editor on many productions such as Love Island, Hell's Kitchen and The Voice. She has a natural confidence and positivity which makes her clients feel safe when they are working with her. She is great at finding the story within hours of rushes and pairing it with great music choices to get the emotion across. She is a great addition to the team and has a lovely, upbeat and hardworking nature.
