Rob Trela

Avid Offline/Premiere Editor

Profile

Originally from the States, Rob has years of experience cutting US entertainment and factual series and he built up an excellent reputation as an editor. Now based in the UK, he is an intelligent, hardworking and artistic editor with a great collaborative team spirit and is often lead editor on series for this reason. He has quickly built up an excellent reputation in the UK market, proving himself to be a highly sought-after editor. He has had the opportunity to develop his skills in other genres such as true crime and drama documentary for streamer clients. Obviously, he is great at cutting to a fast turnaround and that fast-paced flashy US style we all know and love, however he always cuts with the story in mind. He knows when something needs to move and when it needs to breathe, and really enjoys situations where the story demands a slower pace. He is a perfectionist, yet not at the expense of speed and efficiency, and an all-round great guy to work with.

"When I have a new film or series commissioned, Rob Trela is the first editor I'll call. Rob is a hugely talented and passionate storyteller. Whatever the genre he has incredible emotional, visual and musical instincts and sensibilities. He is an expert at finding the emotional core and drama within a scene. Rob is fast, collaborative and a pleasure to hang out with in the suite." Sam Miller, Director/Exec Producer, Hidden Light.
