Pulse Films

"The Surrogates" 3 x 60min. Documentary series looking into the morally complex and endlessly fascinating world of surrogacy. Sometimes heart-warming, sometimes Handmaid's Tale – it's a subject everyone has an opinion on. Some of our surrogates are married, others are single. Some are addicted to pregnancy and others are hooked on the rush they get from giving the ultimate gift to a couple in need. But many see it as an alternative means of income, because while it's illegal to pay surrogates in this country, it is legal to give "reasonable expenses" and gifts.

Executive Producer: Nick Betts

Hidden Light Productions for BBC One

"Night Coppers" 2 x 60min. Observational documentary series that joins the cops who police Brighton's hectic nightlife scene. How does crime impact the person inside the uniform, when dark humour is often the best way through the night?
